

April 4, 2007

Emerson Radio Corp.

Receives "Partner Award of Excellence" From Target Corporation for Second Straight Year

Company Is First Time Repeat Winner of This Prestigious Award in the Houseware Category

(AMEX:MSN) announced today that Target Corporation's houseware group has presented Emerson with its Partner of the Year award for 2006. This is the second straight year that Emerson has received this award from Target's houseware group.

The Partner of the Year honor recognizes Emerson Radio's "innovative leadership, superior business practices and commitment to (Target's) core strategies of Differentiation, Value and Reliability." Emerson has a strong presence at Target with its microwave line and is currently launching a new wine cooler line there as well. The Company was the sole vendor to win in the houseware category this year.

"The Emerson Radio family is humbled by Target's recognition of our great partnership," said Mr. Eduard Will, Emerson Radio Corp. President - North American Operations. "We value immensely our relationship with Target and appreciate the wonderful synergies of working with this leading mass merchandiser. We are pleased with the performance of our line of products within the Target sales environment and look forward to continued success with Target, where we anticipate maintaining superior volume performance as we roll out exciting new lines."

Target's Partners of Excellence are selectively awarded by the merchandiser's Chairman and CEO based on a variety of performance measures. Emerson Radio received the award on March 21, 2007.